
U.B. David + I'll B. Jonathan Inc.

DESIGNATED MENTOR AGREEMENT

This Designated Mentor Agreement will include a mutual acceptance of Statements of Faith, guiding principles, and mission vision and goals. The objective of all organizations involved in this program is to develop “a person after God’s own heart” through manifesting the spirit of Jonathan towards each participant. As such, the only kingdom we are interested in building is the Kingdom of our Lord Jesus Christ.

The Designated Mentor (DM) has a vision which goes far beyond the event that he is attending, because he sees a child or youth (David) with tremendous potential for the future. This vision sees David becoming a Christian with the assurance of his salvation, and knowing what to do when he falls into sin. He sees David with a desire to have a heart that pleases God (1 Samuel 13:14). He sees him with the characteristics of 1 Samuel 16:18. The DM realizes that this does not happen overnight but probably will take years of development.

With this in mind the DM takes every opportunity to encourage him in the correspondence courses where he will be taught this vision he has for him. The DM will not seek to possess him but recognize that he is the Lord's and the greatest thing he could do for him is allow the Lord to have His way in his life.

Therefore he will manifest the life of Jonathan to him.

The DM’s main responsibilities are to have a good understanding of the D&J program and its philosophy, to promote the need and value of it to their teachers, and to regularly pursue the students in encouraging them to do the lessons.

U.B. David + I’ll B. Jonathan, Inc. will provide the following resources to approved participating organizations:

- secure access by the Designated Mentor to specific information about their Davids (participants/students as identified by “My Jonathan’s Name”) in the D&J online database – name, full address, email address, gender, birth date, comments made and total points earned to date;
- online lessons (currently close to 900) at the UBDavid.org website available freely to Davids;
- the awards incentive program including automatic lesson points accumulation and certificates for all the major point levels;
- camp/special event discount cards which the ministry will honor and which the Designated Mentor sends to his Davids at each 1000 point level;
- “What I have learned” testimonies from D&J students from time to time.

A PARTICIPATING CAMP/MINISTRY may offer the D&J program to any of their campers/students. The ministry will agree to the following responsibilities and program parameters:

- appoint a specific person(s) to oversee their participation in this program as their “Designated Mentor(s)”; this person(s) is the ministry’s key liaison with the relevant D&J officer and is responsible to ensure that the privacy of student participants (Davids) is maintained (see the Privacy and Security Statement on page 5);

This Agreement shall be for a term of two years after which it will terminate unless extended for a further term by both parties.

This Agreement will be terminated by David & Jonathan Inc. in the event that the participating camp/ministry and/or Designated Mentor fails to act in a responsible and reputable manner.

The MISSION of D&J is “developing young people after God’s own heart.” (1 Samuel 13:14)

The VISION of D&J is “to see Jesus seated on the throne of every ‘David’ and ruling over all the aspects of their life.” (Luke 1:31-33)

The METHOD of D&J is Jonathans building up Davids (1 Samuel 18:1).

DESIGNATED MENTOR AGREEMENT Statement of Faith

- We believe in one God, eternally existent in three persons -- the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.
- We believe that, "All Scripture is given by inspiration of God", meaning the Bible, composed of the Old and New Testaments; that it is inerrant in the original writing and that its teaching and authority is absolute, supreme and final.
- We believe in the personality and deity of the Lord Jesus, in His virgin birth, in His sinless life, in His miracles, in His vicarious and atoning death, in His bodily resurrection, in His ascension to the right hand of the Father, and in His personal and imminent return in power and glory.
- We believe in the personality and deity of the Holy Spirit, the source and power of all acceptable worship and service, the infallible Interpreter of the infallible Word, Who indwells every true believer and is ever present to testify of Christ, seeking to occupy us with Him and not with ourselves or our experiences.
- We believe that man was created in the image of God, but by willful transgression became sinful and is justly under the condemnation and wrath of God.
- We believe that the only salvation from this guilt and condemnation is through faith in the righteousness and atonement of the Lord Jesus Christ, Who became the sinner's substitute before God and died as a propitiatory sacrifice for the sin of the whole world. Salvation is the free gift of God's love and grace.
- We believe that the Church is composed of all those who truly believe on the Lord Jesus Christ as Savior. It is the body and bride of Christ.
- We believe it is the privilege and responsibility of every Christian to be a witness unto Him. The Lord Jesus is the true soul winner and lives in the Christian by the power of the Holy Spirit. The supreme mission of the people of God is to preach the Gospel to every creature.
- We believe that the New Testament church is a body of believers, associated for worship, service, and the spread of the Gospel of the grace of God to all the world.
- We believe in the resurrection of the saved into everlasting life and blessedness in Heaven, and the resurrection of the unsaved unto everlasting punishment in Hell.

DESIGNATED MENTOR AGREEMENT Guiding Principles

The Spirit of Jonathan

There is really only one thing that will hinder the use of the D&J program by those who are involved, and that is the misuse of the name of the program. Fortunately each of us know the story of Jonathan well and we do not need to repeat it here. Over and over as this program has been pondered into existence and the question arose as to how we should handle this or that, the answer would come: “in the spirit of Jonathan.” To have many organizations cooperating together and seeking to do it in harmony is unusual and many would say nigh impossible. However, it can be done if we have the “spirit of Jonathan” in our midst. We must insist on it, otherwise we will have the “spirit of Saul,” God forbid. Each of us needs to determine at the outset whether we could participate in the “spirit of Jonathan.” Having responded positively to this, there is an unlimited time use of this program.

Unity

To be truly effective in reaching and discipling children and youth for Christ, there must be a strong sense of unity amongst all those involved. First and foremost, the focus must be on the child or youth. We all must pledge a commitment to make available the appropriate resources of our particular organization to help develop him and bring him to Christian maturity. This means setting aside any parochial agendas. The fact is, no one particular group or institution can provide the perfect well-rounded development for the child. This may well be why God has raised up each organization with its unique strength.

It is desirable and imperative that our unity flows out of easy and natural relationships and is not the result of authoritarian rule. More importantly, the members must allow the Holy Spirit to impart His unity, His power and His motivation. We believe that maintaining the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace by mutual submission and accountability is a high priority.

Communication

And there needs to be a continual and open flow of communication throughout the organizations to maintain understanding and commitment towards the goal of developing ‘David’ to the place of having Jesus Christ seated on the throne of his life (Luke 1:32).
